Look for these new magazines on our shelves: Grand Lifestyle, a sophisticated local quarterly magazine which focuses on the people, places, and perspectives of the Grand Forks region, which strives to highlight the best our region has to offer; and Magnolia Journal, a quarterly lifestyle magazine created by Chip & Joanna Gaines of HGTV, which provides seasonal inspiration for your life and home, including essays, recipes, decorating tips, ideas for entertaining, and more.

Summers are busy at the library - just show up any Thursday afternoon to see the Summer Reading Program crowd. There's something for everyone, including a ton of children's programming and the Teen Summer Reading Challenge, Young Adult Book Club, and Teen Café for teens. We have events for the whole family - Family Movie Day, anyone? - and programs that overlap age groups - Northern Ink Writing Group, multiple book clubs, Scrabble Club, Animanga Club, Cosplay Club, and Chess Club, to name just a few. We have books, movies, magazines, and more - even video games! The library has a lot to offer, and we're growing and changing all the time. Stop in and be a part of it all!

July Book Clubs

Between the Panels, Thursday, July 12, 7 pm - The Wicked + the Divine by Kieron Gillen. Every ninety years, twelve gods take on human form. Within two years, they are dead. Just because you're immortal, it doesn't mean you're going to live forever.

Classic Re-reads, Wednesday, July 25, 7 pm - The Mill on the Floss by George Eliot. A tale of the complex relationship between Maggie and her brother Tom and how it is affected by their personalities, social circumstances, and friendships. (This book will be read for the July and August meetings)

Great Reads, Tuesday, July 17, 7 pm - Homegoing by Yaa Gyasi. Follow the lives of two half-sisters from Ghana: Effia, who marries a white man, and Esi, who is imprisoned as a slave.

Life After Life, Wednesday, July 11, 7 pm - Hope: Entertainer of the Century by Richard Zoglin. Bob Hope achieved top-rated success in every major mass-entertainment medium of the century, from vaudeville in the 1920s to television in the 1950s, '60s, and '70s. (This book will be read for the July and August meetings)

This & That, Tuesday, July 10, 7 pm - Read any alternate history/alternate timeline book and share it with the group.

Who Done It?, Tuesday, July 10, noon - Cocaine Blues by Kerry Greenwood. At the end of the Roaring Twenties, socialite Phryne Fisher becomes bored with the endless round of London parties and takes up detective work in Melbourne, Australia.

Young Adult, Tuesday, July 31, 7 pm - Come and hang out, have some snacks, and talk about your favorite books, TV shows, movies, and more!
