

COMMON GROUND

UND FACULTY AND STUDENTS ARE INVITED to a Community-University Learning Forum

Downtown Grand Forks, Saturday, April 16, 2016

Do you want to engage your discipline and your students outside the classroom? Here's your chance. Help find our Common Ground as a community and a university by learning from each other April 16. Who are we, and what kind of community do we want to become? Please inform your students and consider class assignments and extra credit opportunities. Relevant faculty or student research projects and results can be incorporated into breakout sessions. Contact us to find out how.
